The demonstration lasted several minutes. She stated that the claim that two attorneys had been sent to Mrs. Scott was incorrect. She said that she believed the credentials committee represented only one party. She declared that no discourtesy had been meant. After a long discussion the amend-ment for the appointment of a new credentials committee was carried.

What the Commissioners have decided to do is to institute condemnation proeedings in accordance with the provision contained in the District appropration act for 1913. If protest is made by property owners. it is pointed out, the matter then will be one for the courts to determine. It is suggested that the cost of the assess-ment can be added to the value of the property when proceedings are instituted by the federal government to acquire the entire zone for a connecting parkway Advised to Begin Action.

It is understood that the Commissioners t first were undecided as to whether it would be advisable to institute proceedings for the extension of Rock Creek drive at the present time, but that after careful consideration of the matter with the corporation counsel the conclusion was reached that the District heads had no other course to follow than to carry out the provision contained in the District appropriation act. .Under the terms of this act Rock Creek drive is to be extended from Massachu setts avenue southerly to Montrose Park.

while the Commissioners are directed to condemn any private interest in the land in Lovers' lane lying between certain par-cels of land and Montrose Park. Delay has been caused in the filing of the condemnation papers, but it is understood that the necessary preliminary legal steps looking toward the acquisition of the
